

HOSPITALITY AND TOURISM MANAGEMENT MINOR

Degree Requirements

Students in other colleges may elect, with the approval of their department chair, an HTM minor in the College of Education and Professional Studies. A 2.0 GPA is required for the courses applied toward the minor. The HTM minor allows students to enhance their major degrees with exposure to a program that prepares students for local and global hospitality and tourism careers. The required courses provide students an overview of the foundational elements of the industry, while the elective courses offer more in-depth exposure to the various sectors within the industry.

The minor consists of 18 credit hours, comprised of one lower-division course (3 hours) (HTM 200), four upper-division courses (12 hours), and one elective (3 hours).
